

Mount Saviour
Benedictine Oblate Retreat
Led by Monsignor Richard Liddy***
Friday-Sunday
October 16-18, 2015

Make plans now to attend as space is limited.
Email guest@msaviour.org for reservations and/or questions.

Retreat Theme: Reflection on the Psalms

Progress: Psalms of praise and thanksgiving

Decline: Psalms of repentance, conversion, transformation

Redemption: Psalms of rescue by the LORD

Agenda

See www.msaviour.org for schedule of daily Mass & Offices

Friday

Introductions & Light Supper, St. Joseph's --
5:30 p.m.

Session 1: Overview, Chapel – 7:15 p.m.

Saturday

Session 2: Progress, Chapel – 10:30 a.m.

Session 3: Decline, Chapel – 7:15 p.m.

Sunday

Session 4: Redemption, Chapel 8:00 a.m.

*Msgr. Richard M. Liddy is the University Professor of Catholic Thought and Culture at Seton Hall University and a member of the Religion and Catholic Studies departments. He is presently the Director of the Center for Catholic Studies at Seton Hall, a center that includes three institutes: the Bernard J. Lonergan Institute, the G.K. Chesterton Institute for Faith and Culture, and the Micah Institute for Business and Economics. He was a student of Bernard Lonergan in Rome and has published two books on him: Transforming Light: Intellectual Conversion in the Early Lonergan and Startling Strangeness: Reading Lonergan's Insight.

Cost (Includes meals)

Overnight Guests for 2 nights: $200

Day/Local guests: $100

Extension of visit: Usual day rate will apply