ADDRESS CORRECTION REQUESTED

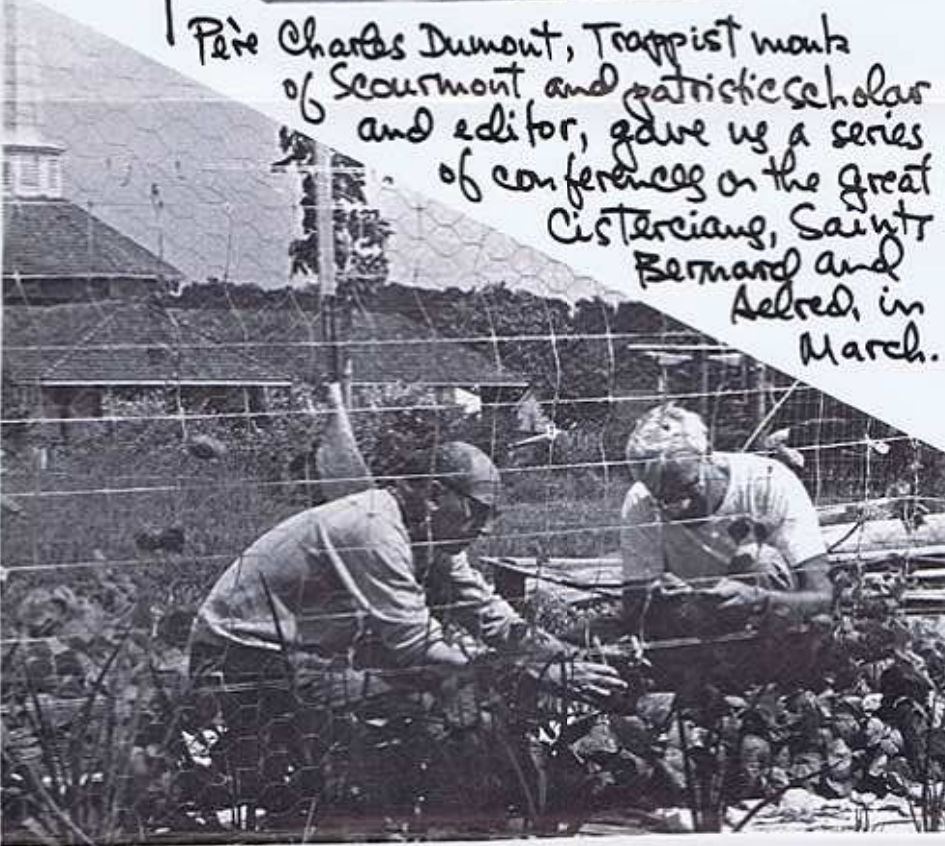

↑ Père Charles Dumont, Trappist monk of Scourmont and patristic scholar and editor, gave us a series of conferences on the great Cistercians, Saints Bernard and Aelred, in March.

A sixweek course in "the roots of Christian spirituality" was held here during the summer. Brother James Kelly was the director, and is shown here with Stephen Christian, Al Alwartz, John Seniff, John Barnoski and David Drewelow. Several members of the community provided conferences. →

A flower arrangement by Br. Nicholas for the meeting of the Southern Tier Rose Society and the Corning Area and Three Rivers garden clubs.

We are often asked about good reading and we would like to recommend:

G.H. Dodd: The Founder of Christianity
(Mac Millan, $1.45)

Bruce Vawter: This Man Jesus
(Doubleday, 5.95)

John C. Haughey: The Conspiracy of God
(Doubleday, 4.95)

Alfred Squire: Asking the Fathers
(Morehouse-Barlow, 5.95)

Monastic Studies/10 containing "Hospitality" by Henri Nouwen and other essays.
(Mt. Saviour, 5.00)

Part of the $40,000 sand filtration system required by new New York state environmental laws. This enormous expense leads us to ask with special fervor for financial assistance through the Fall Festival.
