Dear Friend of Mount Saviour,

We should have known that the talents of our various oblates and friends who cooked up our now famous Mount Saviour Cookbook would produce something beyond our expectations. But 'crepes' I couldn't believe what came off the presses.

The main reason for this flyer is to say you would be proud to give or receive this lovely cookbook as a wedding, Christmas, or birthday gift. If you don't cook, just leave it around to look at. Besides it has a part on drinks and How to Peel an Orange...! Price $5.00 + $0.50 postage + 7% for New Yorkers.

With the Fall Festival only a few hours away, we want to thank everyone who helped us. Family Stamps will be discontinued in our area at the end of this month, but Greens and Triple S are welcome all year round. These stamps supply our 'minor' prizes.

We are doing a lot of insulating, and are putting in a wood-burning boiler to save and perhaps eventually eliminate oil. We have a horse on the way to help us haul logs out of the woods.

Brother Cassian has been making wooden coffins. They are becoming very stylish of late so if you are going to go, go first class! The price is now $200.00. Like everything these days, they will go up before you go down. We do not stock them here so order early and use them to store all sorts of valuables until they are needed for something more valuable.

Brother Luke is painting water colors and they are stunning. Thank God for his talents and hard labors. He also has a supply of very good books in the Shop at the moment. This list is by no means complete:

Karl Rahner	Meditations on the Sacraments	$5.95
	Christian at the Crossroads	$5.95
Don't be frightened by the name--these are directed towards ordinary Christians and not theologians.
Simon Tugwell	Prayer, Living with God	$5.95
	Prayer in practice	$5.95
Madeleine L'Engle	The Irrational Season	$8.95
The two authors mentioned above share their beliefs and experiences in a very personal and compelling way.
Barbara Ward	The Home of Man	$3.95
For economics and an assessment of the human situation and our hope on this earth, here is someone whose writings and ideas you should know.
Bernhard Anderson	Out of the Depths	$4.45
For those who would pray the psalms, this is an excellent introduction.
Avery Dulles	Models of the Church	$6.95
Josef Jungmann	The Mass	$9.95
An historical, theological and pastoral survey. If you want to find your way back, this is the map.

Recommended books, continued:

Paul Tournier	Reflections on life's most crucial questions	$6.95
	The Meaning of Persons	$1.95
	The Whole Person in a Broken World	$1.95
	The Adventure of Living	$1.95
	Learn to Grow Old	$5.95
James Kelly, osb	Drink Freely of Love	$1.95
